

WELCOME TO THEATRE

WITH MR.KING | PS ###

About

What

Our theatre program consists of 9 courses (more info on school website under curriculum) extracurricular productions (Fall play, Spring Musical, 2 student directed shows), and an honor society (Thespian Club meets Thursdays during lunch in the auditorium).

Who

PS ### theatre teacher, Mr. King (he/him) is an educator, theatre-maker and performer originally from the Willamette valley. Outside of work he is most often going on hikes, playing Pokemon or trying new food. Education: BFA in Acting WOU, BA in Interdisciplinary Arts: Music and Dance WOU, MA in Educational Theatre NYU

Attendance

Grades are primarily composed of attendance and participation. Students will be unable to make up most missed work. Theatre is about what we can learn together in the moment. If you foresee attendance being an obstacle, please reach out.

Upcoming Events

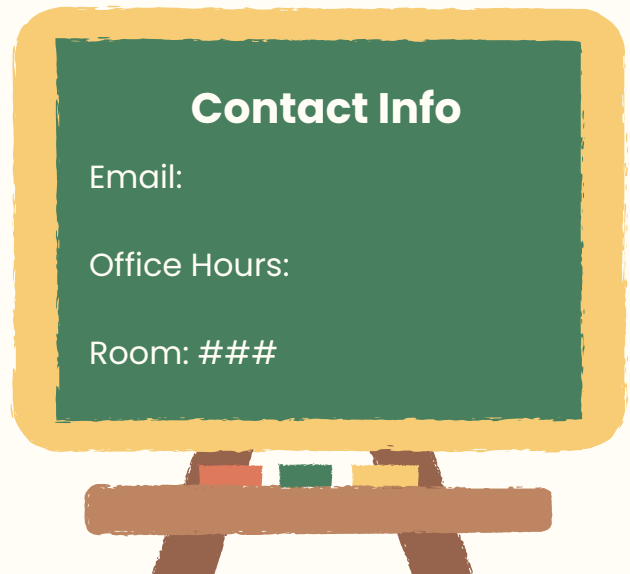

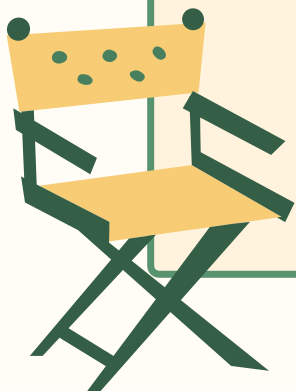

- Open House: XXX #-#
- Auditions: XXX #-#
- Fall Play: XXX #-#

Contact Info

Email:

Office Hours:

Room: ###

Curriculum

Course Title

Course description

Unit 1:

Unit 2:

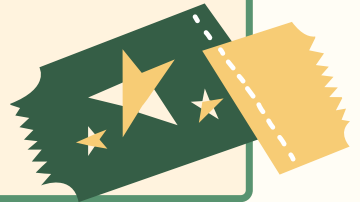

Unit 3:

Unit 4:

Unit 5:

Grades:

- Participation 50%
- Projects 30%
- Assignments 20%

Policies

- 3 strikes you're out for class and school expectations
- Zero tolerance for suicide "jokes", self deprecation, and violence
- Perfect attendance earns a class a pom-pom, when a pom-pom jar is full the class will get a reward day

Expectations

- We are respectful audience members
- We are willing to make mistakes and try
- We will advocate for ourselves

- I will not give up on you
- I will make mistakes and not criticize you for making them
- I am open to feedback and collaborating

*School expectations can be found in student handbook